

Education Pays

Note: Includes only publishable occupational projections data and occupational wages from the OES survey. Occupations are categorized into three groups based on their education and training level and the top five are chosen based on highest total average annual openings. Education and training levels are based on Bureau of Labor Statistics definitions.
 Source: Hawaii State Department of Labor and Industrial Relations, Research and Statistics Office, November 2008.